La Habra Police Department Press Release

La Habra Police is teaming up with 7-11 stores

La Habra, CA – April 13, 2018: This summer, the La Habra Police Department will team up with 7-11 stores to identify minors who are doing good deeds in the community. When a police officer see a good deed being performed by a youth in the community, the officer will “ticket” the minor with a free Slurpee coupon from 7-11. The minor can then redeem the coupon at a local 7-11 store.

The program “Operation Chill” has been around since 1995. 7-11 stores have issued 1.4 million Slurpee Coupons to almost 1,100 law enforcement agencies in the country. The La Habra Police Department is fortunate to have received some of the coupons that will be distributed in the community during the summer months. The La Habra Police Department embraces the program as it is a great way for officers to interact with our young community members.
